Running for My Life draws audience at Culture Festival

Dawn Report

KARACHI: The World Culture Festival 2025 entered its 20th day with a series of vibrant cultural activities, including screening of a Pakistani film, a music workshop by Argentine artist Diana and a theatre performance.

Thee theatre play Running for My Life by Kenya's Khalaha Theatre Company was directed by Theru Nderitu.

The contemporary multimedia production was inspired by the tragic real-life story of Kenyan athlete Agnes Jebet Tirop, a victim of femicide.

Through monologues, re-enactment, and visual storytelling, the play highlighted voices affected by gender-based violence, transforming a personal tragedy into a collective call for justice, resilience, and hope.

The audience applauded the performers for their powerful presentation.

'Music has no boundaries'

The music workshop introduced students to music composition, rhythm, and techniques of Latin music. A large number of South African artists, young musicians, and students participated in the workshop, gaining valuable insight into musical techniques. Argentine's Diana also performed alongside students of the music academy.

Speaking on the occasion, she said, "Music has no boundaries. I am over 50 years old, yet I remain active. Musical instruments feel like memories to me. The most famous rhythm in my country is 'Chaka Rira'. created through clapping and vocal sounds. This music is part of our soul. Another rhythm we have is 'Lendho', which is created using footwork. Music plays a vital role in connecting with people."

Arts Council President Muhammad Ahmed Shah presented Diana with a shield and a bouquet in recognition of her participation.

Written and directed by Hisham Bin Munawar, the cast of Ready Steady No featured Faisal Saif, Amna Ilyas, Salman Shahid, Zain Afzal, Ismail Tara, Nargis Rasheed, Nayyar Ejaz, Ahmed Bilal and Muneer Ahmed.

The film's story revolves around Pakistan's social structure, traditional family mindset and the challenges faced by couples in love.

Benazir Bhutto Chair set up 13 years ago at KU still non-functional, PAC told

By Tahir Siddiqui

KARACHI: The Public Accounts Committee of the Sindh Assembly on Tuesday expressed grave concern over the non-functionality of the Shaheed Benazir Bhutto Chair at Karachi University, directing the university administration to take immediate steps to make the chair operational.

The PAC meeting was chaired by Nisar Ahmed Khuhro, the chairman of the committee.

The participants were informed by the university administration that the chair had been non-functional for the past 13 years due to shortage of funds.

The PAC chairman questioned the university administration about why the Chair had not been made functional despite the lapse of 13 years after spending Rs422 million on the project to establish it.

It was informed that more funds were required to make the Shaheed Benazir Bhutto Chair functional and the PC-1 of the project had been sent for the approval.

The PAC expressed regret over non-functionality of the Chair and directed the university administration to take immediate steps to make the it functional.

The PAC asked the Karachi University administration to review its admissions policy.

The meeting, which reviewed the audit reports of Karachi University from 2021 to 2023, was attended among others by Sindh Higher Education Commission secretary Moin Siddiqui, Acting VC Karachi University Professor Dr Haris Shoaib and Registrar Dr Imran Siddiqui.

Sindh Govt Printing Press losses

The PAC was informed that the Sindh Government Printing Press, situated in Governor House under the provincial industries department, incurred a loss of Rs281 million in 2022 and 2023 alone, as government departments in Sindh opted not to print official materials through the press.

The audit department raised the objection that the Sindh Government Printing Press had spent Rs395 million against a budget of Rs114 million from 2022 to 2023.

The PAC was informed that the SGPP had not maintained its annual accounts since 1970 and had failed to increase its revenue, resulting in a loss of Rs281 million.

5th largest city

with 25,000 people per square kilometre.

The global rural population is expected to peak sometime during the 2040s and then begin to gradually decline. The two most populous countries, India and China, will also have the largest populations residing in towns between now and 2050.

From 2000 to 2025, the global population living in cities increased by 1.25 billion, but over half of this growth came from only a few countries.

India, China, Nigeria, Pakistan and the United States have collectively contributed over 500 million people to the global city population. The world has become increasingly urban; more people live in cities today than in towns or rural areas.

In 1950, city living was relatively unusual: just 20 per cent of the world's 2.5 billion people lived in cities, defined as population centres. Following many decades of urbanisation, cities are now (in 2025) home to 45 per cent of the world's 8.2 billion people, more than double the proportion in 1950.

Rural communities are less densely populated than cities and towns.

Worldwide, more than 3,000 cities experienced population decline between 2015 and 2025, according to the report.

Mayor's Rs9.5bn plan

Mirza Adam Road, Sarwar Shaheed Road and adjoining streets would be rebuilt and rehabilitated.

In Korangi district, Jinnah Square Road, Liaquat Market Road, multiple adjoining access routes, and in Malir district, Malir Khokarpar Road, Mehran Depot arteries and additional roads forming the core Malir traffic grid would be made part of the initiative.

Giving the break-up of the project estimates, the statement said that the estimated cost for road rehabilitation across these districts amounts to Rs5.5bn, while under additional proposals approved for the development package to ensure holistic urban improvement, KMC has also proposed Rs1bn for sewerage infrastructure rehabilitation and Rs2bn for citywide street-light rehabilitation and enhancement.

"The development package will significantly ease travel for millions of residents, reduce congestion, and enhance safety and accessibility across all towns of the city. The proposed over Rs9 billion special grant reflects a strong commitment to improving Karachi's infrastructure and ensuring that development is visible, impactful, and equitable," the statement quoted Mayor Wahab as saying.
